KINGS Capital Construction Named as of One 914INC Magazine's Best of Business

White Plains, NY (September 13, 2021) – KINGS Capital Construction has been named by 914INC magazine as one of the 2021 Best of Business winners. This award is given out to an exclusive group of local businesses that have made meaningful impacts in their industry. The winners were celebrated at a 914INC's Best of Business event this past Thursday, September 9, 2021, in White Plains, New York.

"We could not be more honored to be a 2021 Best of Business Award Winner," said JD Summa, CEO and President of KINGS Capital Construction. "At KINGS Capital Construction, we not only construct buildings at our construction sites, but we also build relationships with our amazing clients and community across the tristate area."

KINGS Capital Construction is known for their expert construction management, general contracting and sitework development services across the tristate area. In 2020, they uplifted their community through donations to local organizations to help fight the COVID-19 pandemic, and the economy fallout that so many businesses in Westchester faced.
